LAST EDITION.

Important from Abroad.

A GENERAL REVOLT IN KHOKAN.

Twelve Hundred Egyptians Murdered in Abyssinia, etc., etc.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—A St. Petersburg telegram states that the news of a general revolt in Khokan has been received in that city, causing great excitement.

The natives have arisen in great numbers, thoroughly organized, and are mas-sacring the Russian soldiers composing the garrisons at various cities in Khokan.

The total strength of these garrisons aggregate 10,000 men, but the number of rebels are so great that the lives of the garrisons are endangered, and they may be overpowered and totally cut off before help arrives.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—A dispatch from Alexandria states that news has been received there of a terrible massacre of the Egyptian troops in Abyssinia. An Egyptian force, occupying one of the districts lately taken, was surprised by a large force of Abyssinians and twelve hundred Egyptian soldiers were murdered, including a number of officers.

THE SUZUK CANAL PURCHASE.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—The press generally comment favorably on the purchase of the Suez Canal by Great Britain. M. De Lesseps has also intimated his approval of the transaction.

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—The sale by Egypt to England of the former's interest in Suez is the subject of favorable comment by the German press generally.

ALFONSO AND CARLOS.

MADRID, Nov. 29.—King Alfonso will take the field in person on the 9th of December and participate in operations against the Carlists. The latter are reported to be utterly decimated and rapidly decreasing in numbers.

STORMS AND MARINE LOSSES.

QUEBEC, ONTARIO, Nov. 29.—A letter has been received from Capt. Ball, of Chalmers, to the effect that on the 10th instant a terrific storm visited that place. Several houses and barns were levelled to the ground. The storm was accompanied with snow, which blocked up the roads.

The steamer Progress went to assist the steamer Kaia, of the Arcadian Line, ashore on Goose Island, and returned to port yesterday. She reports that Kaia lying in one of the creeks, across stream, her portside partly stove in. Ice is in her hold and all over the deck to the height of fifteen feet. She will be a total loss. The Progress picked up two canoes with captain and crew, who left the vessel, and brought them to Quebec. No lives lost.

NOTES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—From latest foreign intelligence we glean the following: Countess De Chambord is dangerously ill.

Authoritative information states that the Crown Prince never contemplated a visit to the United States, notwithstanding all the reports to that effect.

If the Berlin Criminal Court does not put off the execution of the sentence passed on Von Arnim, and if the Count does not return of his own accord the Swiss Government will probably be forced to extradite him.

The curtailing of the Prince of Wales' Indian visit is the risk of cholera.

New York.

Savings Bank—The Suez Canal Purchase—Mr. Wood's Donation—Railroad Washed Away—Charles O'Connor—The Arctic Expedition—Boating.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—It is generally conceded in business circles that the suspensions of the Savings Banks, which have occurred within the last two weeks, will not materially affect Savings Banks generally. The managers of some of the oldest savings institutions declare that a winding up of some of those now doing business here would be salutary, and would establish a more secure feeling, as the present condition of business affairs does not warrant the existence of the number of banks for savings now in operation. Some of the smaller institutions may take advantage of the sixty days rule, if runs take place, but no serious trouble is expected.

A London special says the Khedive of Egypt offered to sell his shares in the Suez canal to France previous to their purchase by Britain. The French Minister wanted his Government to accept the offer, but the Bank of France made some difficulties and the opportunity was lost. Mutual regrets are being interchanged between French officials.

The Marquis of Eland is specially blamed for the fault.

It is now learned that the name of the wealthy unknown, who has donated five million dollars for the erection of a College of Music in Central Park, is Mr.
Samuel Wood, a gentleman aged about eighty, a native of Long Island, and now residing in this city. He is one of four brothers who for fifty years carried on business as importers and wholesale grocers here, and who made vast fortunes.

The Sunday Telegram appeared yesterday for the first time. It starts with a circulation of over 100,000.

A special from Charlottetown, Prince Edward's Island, says two thousand feet of road, near St. Peters, were carried away by the sea, during the late storm, leaving nothing to show that a railway was ever there.

Chas. C. O'Connor, the well-known lawyer, is lying dangerously ill, at his residence, at Fort Washington, a few miles outside of this city; and his recovery is considered extremely doubtful.

Prayers for his recovery were offered in the principal Catholic churches of this city yesterday.

It is said that a movement is on foot in this city to organize an expedition to the Arctic regions for the purpose of searching for records left by Sir John Franklin.

The Herald, editorially referring to the convention of the University Crews, to be held at Springfield, Massachusetts, this week, says:

Prompt and effective steps should be taken to insure the presence at Saratoga and Philadelphia in 1876, of the Oxford and Cambridge teams, as well as one from Dublin University. The University contest comes off in the middle of July, and the Centennial in August. In the interval New York, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco, Pittsburg, Sul-falo and Cincinnati would welcome the visitors to their waters and throw open races sure to be inviting.

A Lively Race—Lectures.

SPECIAL to the Star.

CHILLICOTHE, Nov. 29.—Last Saturday was a squally day for Jas. S. Craig, of Baltimore, and a Cincinnati man named Collins, both traveling men. Early in the morning they badly whipped two men named Campbell and Lyons, in the bar-room of the Emmitt House; in the afternoon they cast sturs against the character of the Warner House in the proprietor's presence; whereupon Mr.
Jacob Warner, the proprietor, with the assistance of Mr. Knowles, ejected them from the house, each of them having beautiful black eyes. In the evening, at about half-past 9 o'clock, a party of roughs assembled, the office of the Emmitt House, where Collins had removed from the Warner House, and without any provocation on Collins' part, one of them, James Baker, attacked him.

Collins was knocked down, insensible, and then Barker and Thomas Gwin, Jr., stamped him in a most brutal manner, no one offering Collins any assistance.

After they had brutally abused him, the roughs quietly went home and to bed.
The police declined to make arrests without a warrant, which was sworn out by L. A. Bowers, proprietor of the Emmitt House. Collins was carried to his room in an insensible condition, and a doctor summoned at once.

It was feared at first that he had sustained
